Dedication 1988

Mr. Martin Costello

Dear Mr. Costello,

It is with great pleasure that we, the Senior Class of 1988, dedicate our yearbook to you. The yearbook is a way of remembering the great times of our high school career. We dedicate those great times to you because you were often part of them. To say thanks, just doesn't seem like it would be enough for all the times that you were there to give an extra push that we needed to get us through a bad day. You have given to us more than we could of possibly asked from a teacher because you were always so much more, you were a friend. There is no doubt that anytime we remember high school and remember you it will always bring a smile to our faces and a warm feeling in our hearts.

*With all of our love and thanks,
The Class of 1988*

Junior Semi-Formal

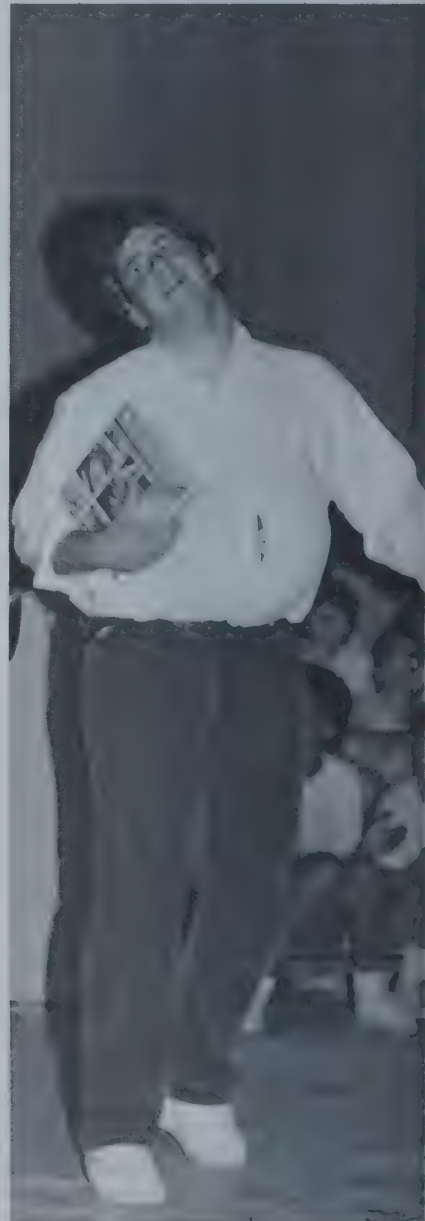

Our Junior semi formal, "You've Got A Friend" was a night of laughing, singing, dancing, and incredible surprise performances by such Sr. Bernard's stars as Gilberto Rivera and Todd Parks. The setting was the American Cultural Center in Leominster, and a finer looking bunch of students was never before seen. It was a night to remember

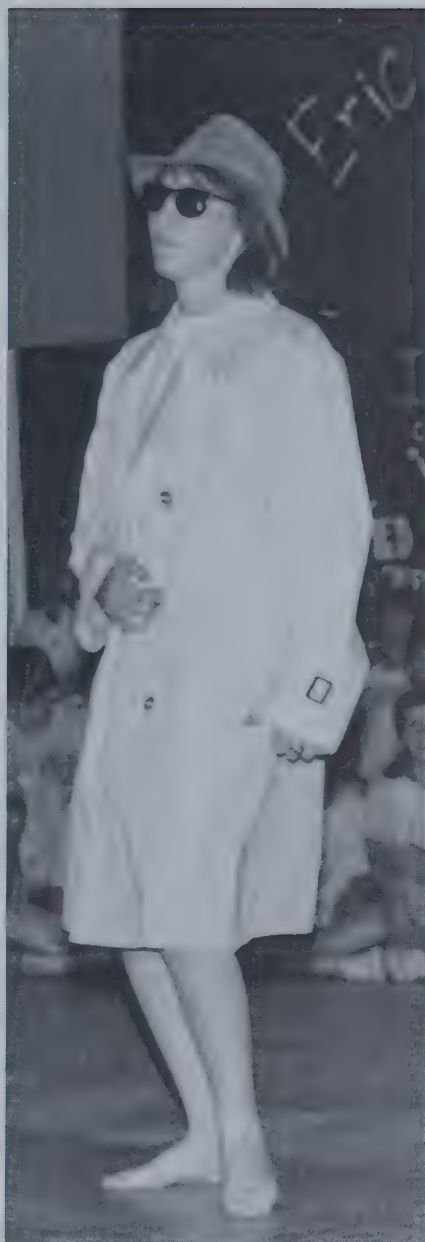

JSR

Practice Practice Practice Weeks of working with each other (and arguing with each other) finally led to the big night-our own JSR. For the first time we worked together as a class for one cause. We were a bit unsure at first, but by the end of the night, both Juniors and Seniors were laughing, crying, and making very special memories places I remember

Impressionable Minds

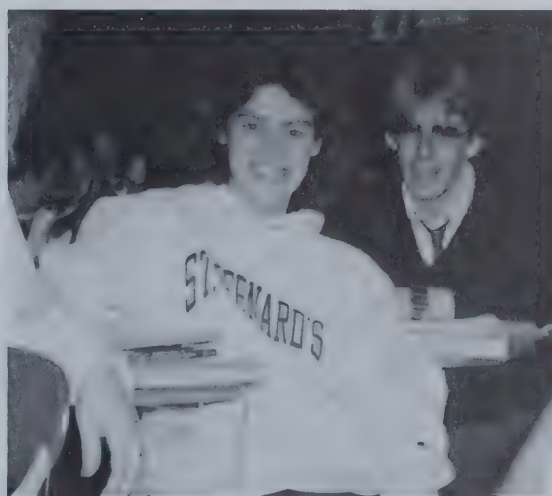

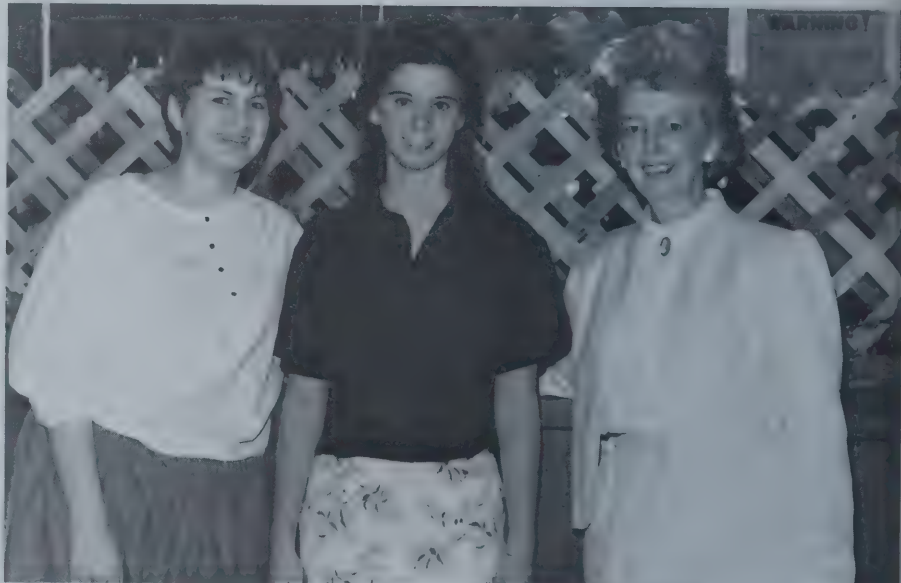

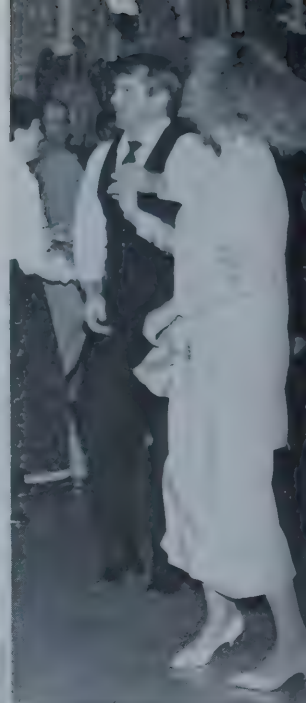

Father Daughter Dance

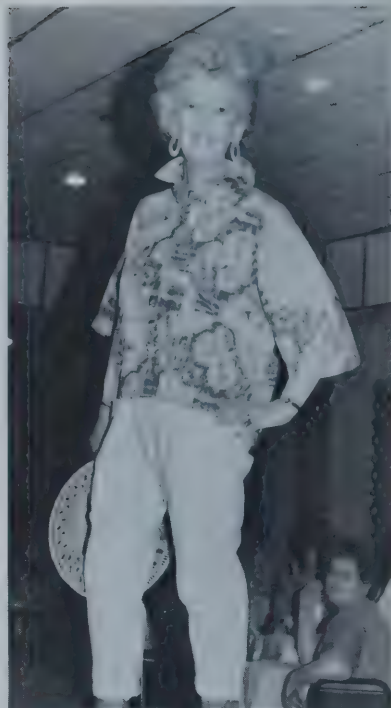

"Through the Years", the traditional Father Daughter Dance was held on November 13th at the Activity Center. Senior girls and their dads enjoyed each other's company for a delicious dinner and, some indubitably debonaire dancing (say that five times fast) to music by the 3 Guys

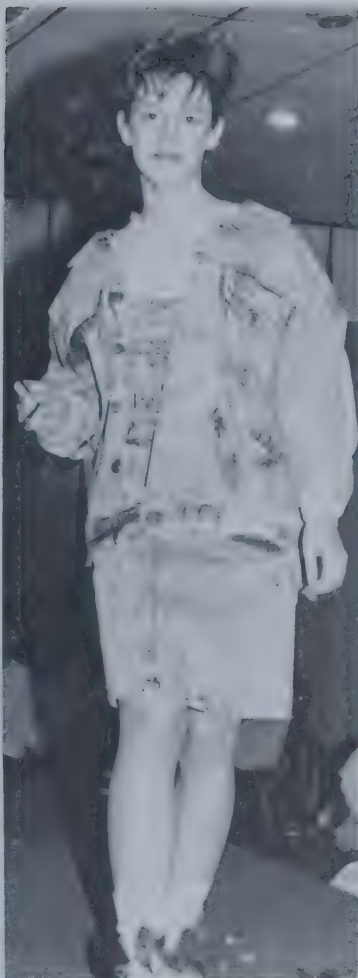

Mother Daughter Tea

This year's Mother Daughter Tea brought fashions with flair to St. Bernard's, as well as a pleasant afternoon for mothers and daughters alike. The tea was put on by Mrs. Barbara McGuirk and Mrs. Paulette Grenier with help from the junior girls, who served tea and modeled the latest fashions.

"My war you're one of them you say you're my friend but you're one of them." Black Flag

The last official social event for the Class of 1988, the prom, was held at the Shareron Tara and was rightly entitled "A Night in Camelot". The hotel, castle-like as it was, added to the magical enchantment of the evening as the class chatted and danced the night away. Court: Julie LeBlanc and Mike Micciche, Nancy Boulay and JD Tousignant, Erin Buchanan and Rob Fanrozzi. King and Queen: Mike Thomas and Moira Murphy.

Senior Prom

Baccalaureate

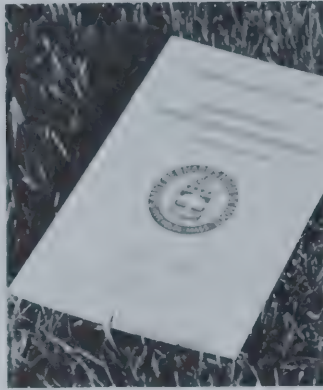

The Baccalaureate Mass was held on May 26, the night before graduation. This was a time many students realized their high school career was ending and their hopes, dreams, and expectations for the future were beginning.

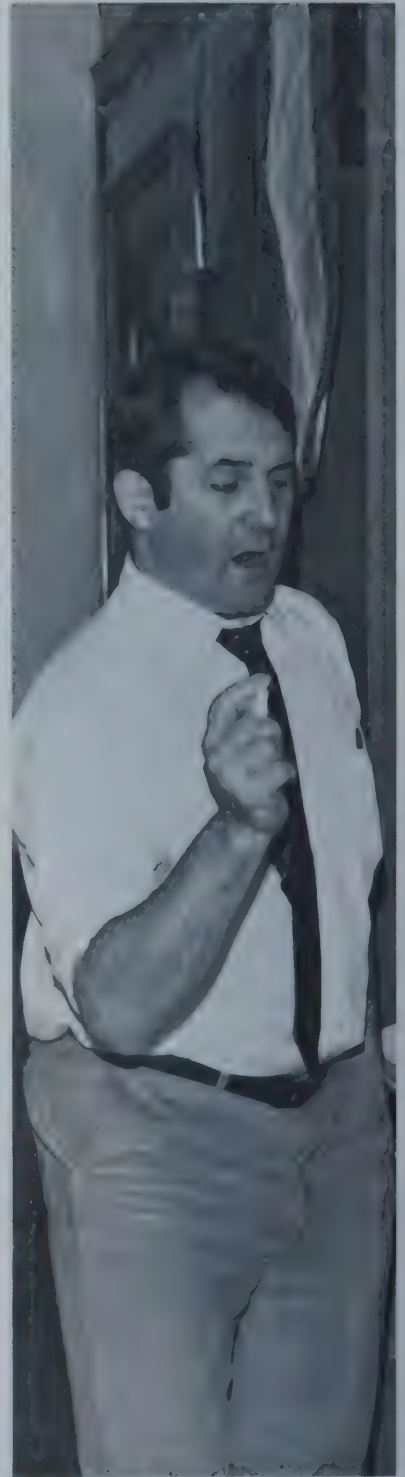

Graduation

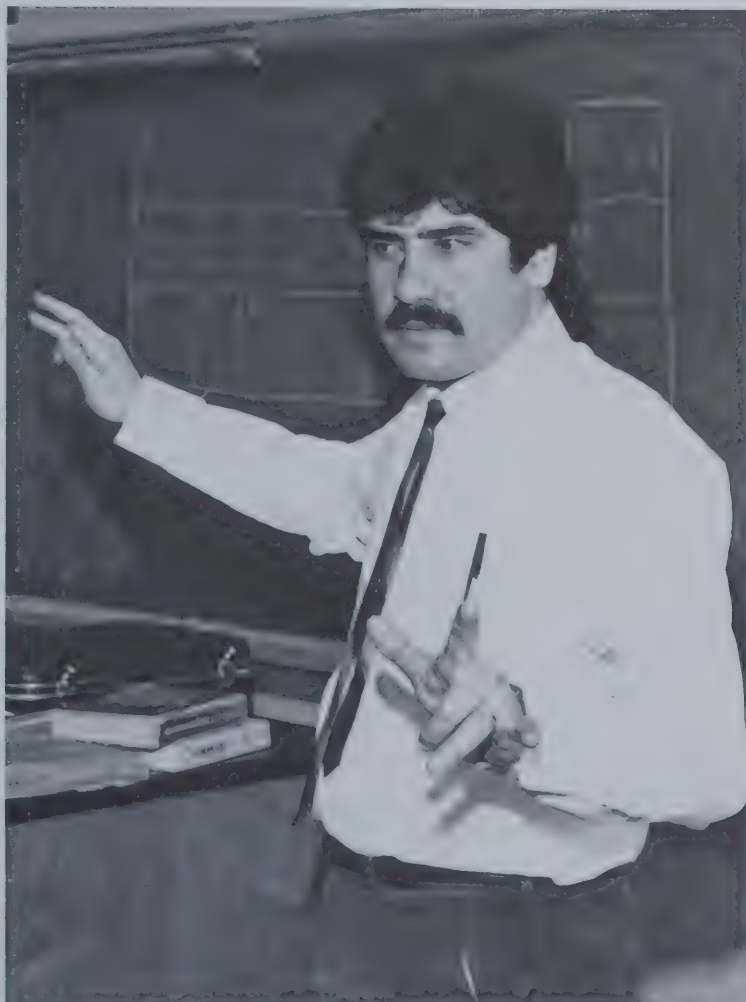

Four years of hard work, finally brought the Class of 1988 to their graduation date of May 27. Mixed emotions of happiness and sorrow were experienced by the Seniors as they marched side by side to receive their diplomas and said their misty eyed good-byes.

Throughout the early years of high school, students cannot help but anticipate the day when they will receive their own class ring. The ring ceremony was an event which marked the class of eighty-nine's arrival as upperclassmen, and their rings will spark memories of their time together forever.

Ring Ceremony

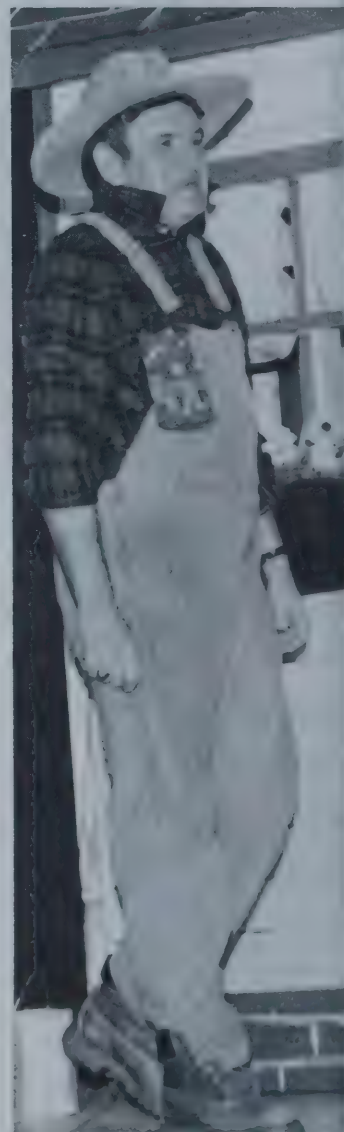

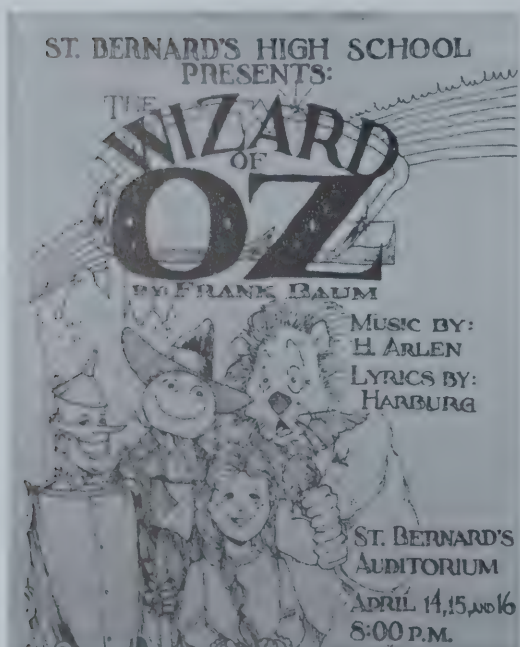

"White Christmas" was this year's theme for the Christmas Dance. Being held at the Activity Center, the dance was one of the most successful dances in the history of St. Bernard's. Congratulations to King and Queen Danny McNabb and Sue Ruddle and the court, Chris Taylor and Candi Perodeau, Krisen Grady and Aaron Isabelle, and Rhonda Fores and John Olszak.

Christmas Dance

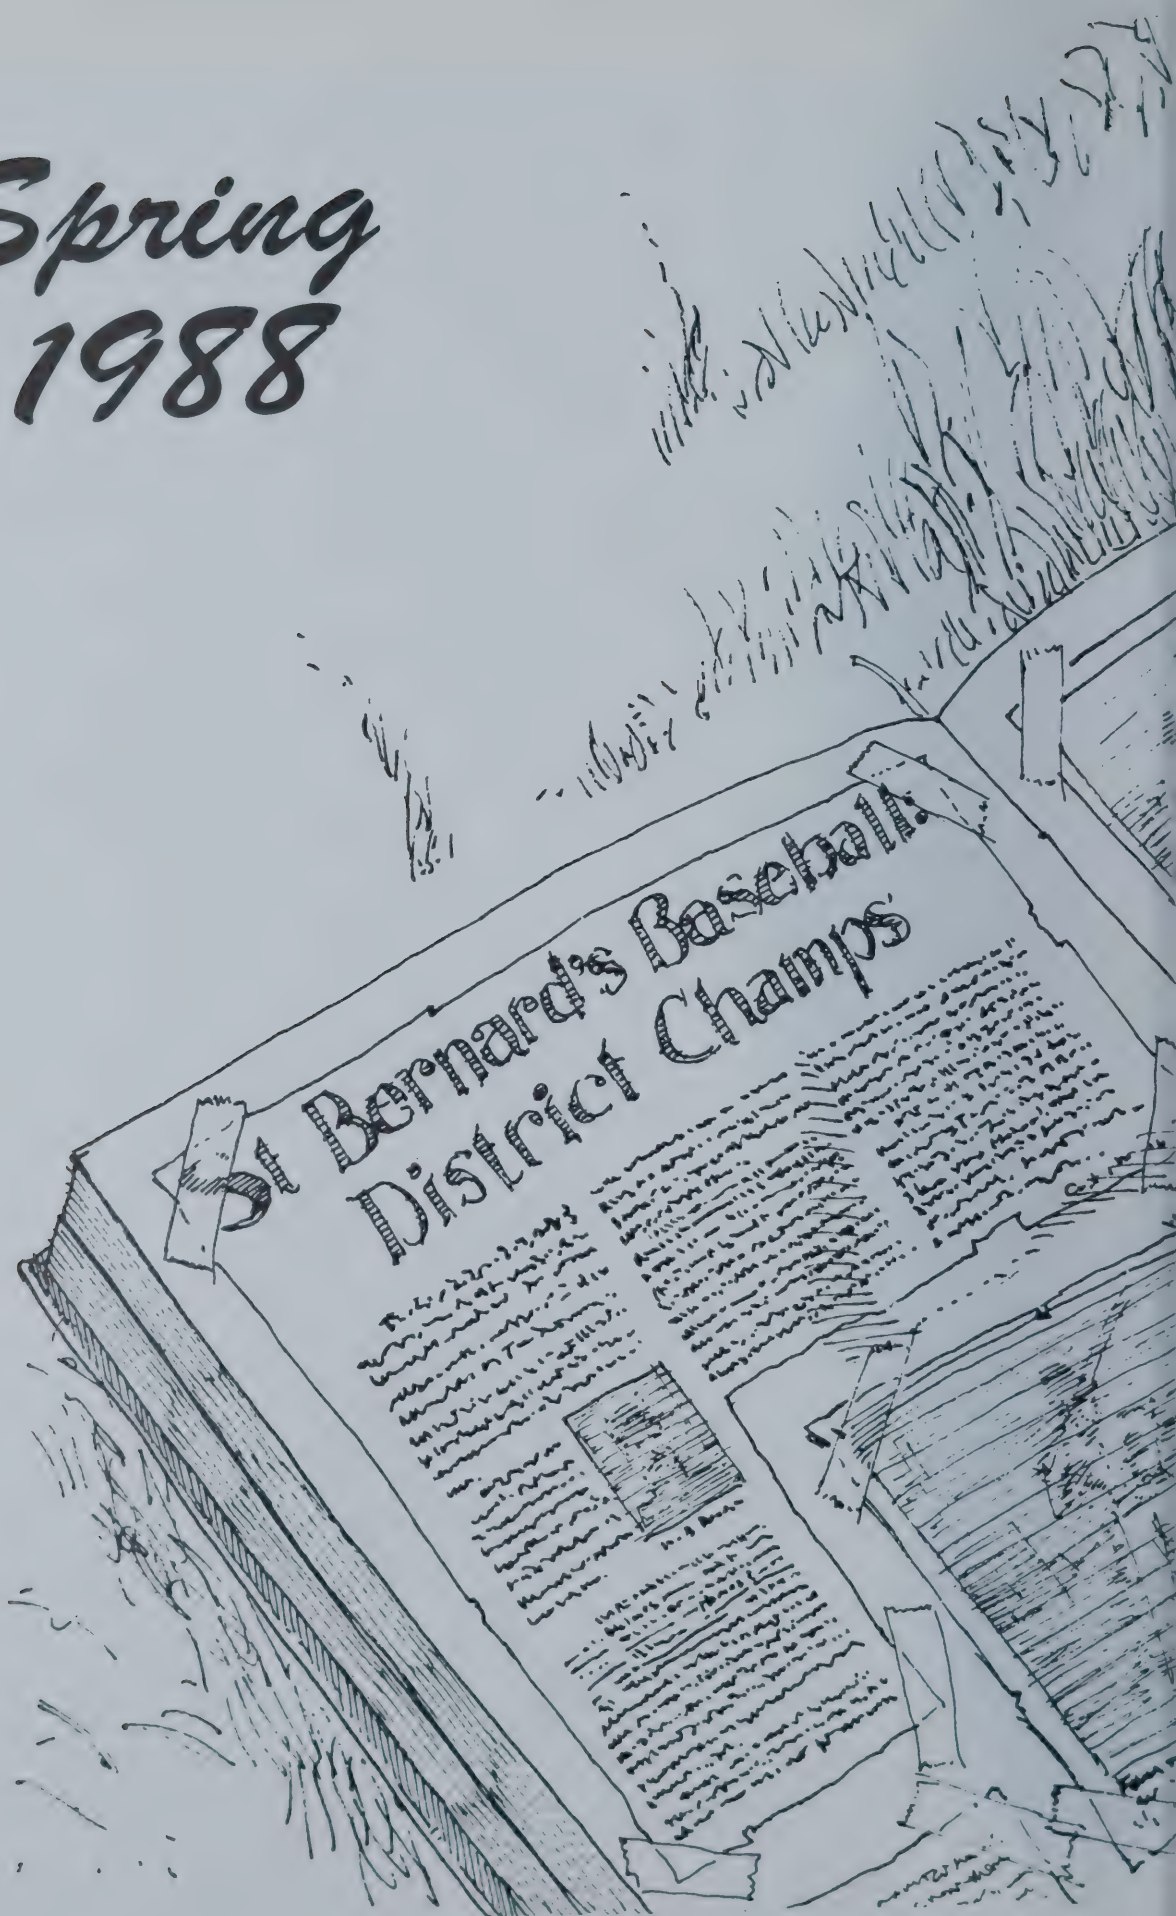

On April 14, 15, 1and 16, the "Merry Old Land of Oz" was brought to the stage of STB. Despite the emergency absence of our tinman, Mark Rheault, the production went off without a hitch. Fine performances were turned in by students such as, Erinn Roy, Laura Raichle, and our star Laurie Beland, and even our own Fr. Flynn and Mrs. Rogers!

A great evening was had by all who attended the Junior Semi-formal at the Italian American Cultural Center this year. Couples danced through an oasis of balloons to the music by "Cover Story". The night was topped off by the crowning of this years queen, Britta Emmond, and her court.

To the members of the Class of 1988

The most glorious moments in your life are not the so-called days of success, but rather those days when out of dejection and despair you feel rise in you a challenge to life, and the promise of future accomplishments.
